UNITED METHODISTS BELIEVE...

WE BELIEVE that God is understood in three distinct forms. Father, Son and Holy Spirit are commonly used to refer to the threefold nature of God. Sometimes we use other terms, such as Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

WE BELIEVE in one God, who created the world and all that is in it. We believe that God is sovereign; that is, God is the ruler of the universe. We believe that God is loving. We can experience God's love and grace.

WE BELIEVE that Jesus was human. He lived as a man and died when he was crucified. We believe that Jesus is divine. He is the Son of God. We believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and that the risen Christ lives today. We believe that Jesus is our Savior. In Christ we receive abundant life and forgiveness of sins. We believe that Jesus is our Lord and that we are called to pattern our lives after his.

WE BELIEVE that the Holy Spirit is God with us. We believe that the Holy Spirit comforts us when we are in need and convicts us when we stray from God. We believe that the Holy Spirit awakens us to God's will and empowers us to live obediently.

WE BELIEVE that God created human beings in God's image. We believe that humans can choose to accept or reject a relationship with God. We believe that all humans need to be in relationship with God in order to be fully human.

WE BELIEVE that the church is the body of Christ, an extension of Christ's life and ministry in the world today. We believe that the mission of the church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We believe that the church is "the communion of saints," —a community made up of all past, present and future disciples of Christ. We believe that the church is called to worship God and to support those who participate in its life as they grow in faith.

WE BELIEVE that the Bible is God's Word. We believe that the Bible is the primary authority for our faith and practice. We believe that Christians need to know and study the Old Testament and the New Testament (the Hebrew Scriptures and the Christian Scriptures).

From the Pastor's Study . . .

The United Methodist understanding of our membership covenant is rooted in our Baptismal covenant. Through baptism we are incorporated into God's mighty acts of salvation. We are claimed by God's grace. The Baptismal Covenant is God's word to us, proclaiming our adoption by grace, and it is our word to God, promising a response of faith and love. Those within the covenant constitute the community we call the church, therefore our membership covenant begins with this sacramental act of being incorporated into Christ Jesus our Lord.

Covenant is the Biblical word for agreement between two parties. In particular, we are talking about the agreement between God and humanity. As the rainbow is the sign of God's promise to never again destroy the earth by a flood, Jesus Christ is the covenant which God makes for the redemption of our souls and the victory of life over death. On God's side of the covenant, Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promises and the invitation to eternal life. On our side of the covenant, we accept what God has done for us in Jesus Christ, we trust in his grace, and we promise to live a life of love as citizens of God's victorious kingdom.

The sacrament of baptism is a celebration of our covenant with God and has a past, present and future reality. It is an act that looks back with gratitude on what God's grace has already accomplished, it is and act of God's grace in the present here and now, and it looks forward to what God's grace will accomplish in the future. While baptism signifies the whole working of God's grace, much that it signifies, from the washing away of sin to the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, will need to happen during the course of a lifetime. Baptism also anticipates the working of the Holy Spirit in our lives drawing us to a fuller relationship with Jesus Christ.

As we are incorporated into Jesus Christ, we are united to one another as Christ's body in the world. In the Sacrament of Baptism, the Church pledges to the one baptized: "Your joy, your pain, your gain, your loss, are ours, for you are one of us." Church membership is built upon this basic commitment we have with one another because of our covenant with God. It is no wonder that we feel such pain when one to whom we have made this commitment chooses to withdraw from our fellowship.

As members of Christ Jesus, we commit to three levels of identification. We first identify ourselves as a Christian, a follower of Christ. Then we identify ourselves with a style of Christian discipleship reflected by the various Christian denominations (i.e. Methodist, Baptist, Catholic, etc.). Finally, we identify ourselves with a particular place where our day-to-day discipleship is carried out, the local congregation.

The local congregation is where the rubber meets the road. It is where we strive to live out our Christian faith, to love and forgive one another, to embrace our spiritual gifts for ministry and to work toward the building of God's kingdom in the world. It is in our local church that we weekly worship God and participate in ministries that transform the world.

The membership covenant that we make with God in our local church is that we will support it with our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness.

Most recently our General Conference has added the words "our witness" to our local church covenant. I believe this reflects the growing awareness of how the church and Christians must be about the work of sharing Christ in the world. Worship and action must be part of the same movement that lifts Jesus up as Lord and Savior.

We are tied together by our membership covenant and it is in these bonds that we seek to grow spiritually for the glory of God and the transformation of the world.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

We've all heard about swine flu or H1N1 and wondered what, if anything we can do to prevent a pandemic. The good news is that yes, we do have some control. However, with control comes responsibility. As a people of faith, let us do the following things:

1. Make it a priority to receive your swine flu AND your seasonal flu vaccines
2. Wash your hands at every opportunity, if running water is not available use hand sanitizer.
3. Have hand sanitizer available in the narthex, at coffee hour and in the kitchen.
4. Cover your cough by coughing into a tissue or your sleeve—NOT your hands.
5. STAY HOME IF YOU ARE ILL
6. It is OK not to shake hands during the passing of the peace. Fold your hands in prayer and nod to the person you are greeting honoring the presence of Christ in their life.
7. If you are planning a function---have hand sanitizer available and expect that people will stay home if they are ill. Remind people that it is OK to stay home if they are ill.
8. For further updates and recommendation, check out the CDC website at <http://www.cdc.gov/H1N1FLU/> and your local department of health.

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise. Ephesians 5:1

A BOOK REVIEW
by Pauline Clingan

Devotions: Janet Rockenfelder
Hostess: Wilda Boyer

From the Library

Some new book arrivals in the CUMC library are there for you to read. Ask our librarian Pauline Clingan for help and enjoy!!

Where Angels Go ~ Debbie Macomber enchants us with a new Christmas story. Shirley, Goodness and Mercy are each assigned to help people with their earthly problems. Not immune to getting in trouble themselves, the three angels sort out their differences with faith and love.

Ladies of Liberty ~ by Cokie Roberts tells the stories of influential women during the presidencies of John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison and James Monroe. Roberts cites many original sources in her biographical sketches and recognizes the contributions of these early patriots.

When Satan Wore a Cross ~ by Fred Rosen, is the story told of a Catholic priest gone bad. In an era when priestly misdeeds were covered up, the shocking murder of a nun took place in a hospital chapel in Toledo, Ohio. For twenty-three years the crime remained unsolved until the suspect once again made the news and the resulting evidence sealed his fate.

We need big feet, little feet, skinny feet and fat feet for our annual Ashland County Crop Walk!

Mark your calendar for the upcoming CROP Walk to be held on Sunday, October 25th at 2:30pm. It is a great project for men, women, youth, fellowship groups, Sunday School classes, seniors and children of all ages.

Let's see if we can do it again this year! Our coordinator is Jim Pifer. If you cannot walk and would still like to pledge, please contact him at 419-289-6848.

We walk because others walk and we're making a difference one step at a time!!

October 2009

For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Learn, Grow, and Serve by becoming a Stephen Minister

Do you have gifts for caring, encouragement, and listening? If so, please prayerfully consider becoming a Stephen Minister. Christ United Methodist Church will be training another class of Stephen Ministers beginning January 9, 2010.

Stephen Ministers provide emotional and spiritual support and care to people who are going through a difficult time, such as divorce, grief, hospitalization, unemployment, terminal illness, relocation, chronic illness, or loneliness.

To find out more about becoming a Stephen Minister or how you or someone you know could be matched with a Stephen Minister, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders: Ron and Vicki Johnson or Pastor Jim Cox.

Next Meeting

Monday, October 12, 2009
7-9 pm in room 212

Ron Johnson will be leading our continuing education time focused on Peer Supervision. Wilma Jean McConnell will be providing devotions and refreshments. Stephen Ministers are reminded to bring their contact record and check-in forms.

HOMEBOUND MEMBER OF THE WEEK

So we as a congregation can be mindful of those members not able to be in worship with us, we will be listing a Homebound Member of the Week. We use the term "homebound" loosely as some persons may be able to venture out occasionally but finds their body or mind causes pain or embarrassment. While we encourage them to attend church and/or social functions as much as possible, we are sensitive to their situation and want them to know we care. An address will be listed so a card can be sent or a visit made. If you know someone who qualifies, but might be overlooked, please contact the church office, Pastor Jim, or Doris Hintz.

A harvest of...

Autumn brings many visible changes. God makes lots of foods and grains ready for harvest. He also tells us that if we sow in peace, we, too, can raise a harvest.
